

The Tynings School Poems

The Horror Poem

The dripping sounds like it is talking to me.
Haunted music plays all night.
Everlasting horror.

Giants sleep underground.
Hallowe'en horror will rise from the ground.
Out come the ghosts.
Snapping bones will crackle and crunch while you lie asleep.
Tonight the monsters will try and take your blood and brain.
Loneliness in the dark and dawn for the rest of the century.
You will hear the door creak open slowly.

The evil people will be looking at you tonight.
Under your bed are zombies that will eat your brain!
Near the tunnel are the monsters!
Not safe anywhere. BEWARE!!!!
Exactly the same time every night, they will rise!
Look out for the monsters!
by Katelin & Mei

The Tunnel

The tunnel is like a gold mine
Haunted tunnel
Everlasting tunnel

Tomb of the railway workers
Underneath a dragon's belly
Never-ending shadows
Now even scarier than before!
Even colder than outside Leaving a flood behind them
by Jacob and Ben

The Monster Tunnel

Monster tunnel full of souls
On the tunnel live dead moles
Never do the souls leave the tunnel
Steam comes from the monster's funnel
The tunnel is big and wide
Every monster train goes in with pride
Rest never happens

Terrifying trolls
Using the tunnel is dangerous
No people allowed
Not even a mouse
Evil lurks in there
Looking at monsters is terrifying!
by Lewis and Alex

Our Adventure On The Railway Track

The leaves look like bats hanging upside down, swinging side to side.
Deep dark shadows watch us from up above.
We are in the tunnel, the electric lights shine down like lightning.
Inside the tunnel, it is silent.
I can hear dripping rain, rippling through the bricks.
I touch the wall, feel the ooze like damp blood.
by Megan

The Horror Rhyme

Log, dragon face,
It's time to solve the case,
Make sure you have an incredible base

The witch's claws, longer than cats,
She will give you a nasty scratch,
The blood drips, makes a flood,
Now it's dark, like mud

It's the haunted trail,
We don't want to fail,
Grab a pebble and gain a level,
The dead worm on the floor,
You don't know, there might be more

Scary faces everywhere,
We'd better get out of here,
I can hear terrifying noises in my ear!
by Josh and Archie

Tunnel

In a tunnel we walked,
In a tunnel we stalked,

Poison dripping from troll snot,
Cascading waterfall not,
Dark red eyes, alien fingers poking out,
People doubting the aliens would give us a drought,
Ant mountain crystal on the ground,
Watch out! Do not make a sound,
Or you will drown.
by Archie

The Nature Poem

Muddy puddles splashing on the floor,
Dirty leaves float in the brown water,
Goo on the rocky ceiling,
The shadows of ghosts watch us,
Two people pass us, cycling and running.
by Willow

The Train

The train went fast and it had a fire
Here's a train on the track, with steam coming out of the top Endless track

The tunnel is black and scary
Raindrops fell
At the station a train broke down
In the snow the trains melt the snow with their steam Never ends
by Alison

Tunnel Poem

There is a rainbow in the sky,
One is bright and the other is not bright,
In the tunnel a monster hunts for food,
Tree branches are like mouths,
On the tunnel walls is the shadow of a monster,
The water in the tunnel drips into humungous puddles
by Robyn

The Railway Path

The bridge is a dinosaur
The walls are ill
The river is like a green path
The tunnel is a musical tunnel
The steam hangs like a ghost in the air
The vent is a prison

by Riley

Trains

Dark like bark,
A monster in disguise,
Fast like sonic,
Trains in the tunnel and at the station,
Changing tracks,
Some injuries and accidents,
Carrying passengers along by Spencer

Along The Railway Path

Rain like a tap dripping and dropping Dripping dripping rain bouncing to the ground
Twigs like knives waving from side to side
Weeds like arms dancing all around Sticks and twigs banging on the floor
The sound of puddles splashing down
Tiptoeing in the rain, trains coming by, you can't complain
Trains faster and faster
Slower and slower
Trains going fast and trains going slow
A long, long time ago
by Jenny and Charlotte

The Old Railway

Old railway station falling apart
Long bushy trees covering the walls
Dripping drops

Raining inside the black, gloomy tunnel
A curvy candy-coloured rainbow
I can smell steamy smoke from trains long ago
Lovely sweet sounds of birds tweeting
Water flowing down the walls
A dark hole where bats sleep
Yellow sun hides behind the grey clouds
by Tiana & Helena

The Railway Tunnel

There is ghost ooze dripping down the wall
High pitched tweeting birds echo in the tunnel

Everlasting echoes in the long tunnel

Red bricks have been covered by soot
A colourful rainbow frowns in the sky
It's always shining bright Little lake, running down the side of the path, glows
Waterfalls, rushing down the wall, shimmers in the sunlight
All of the little creatures clamber up the rocks
You should watch out

Twisty trees dance around each other
Umbrellas are needed under the tunnel
Nasty bits of glass shine by the rocks
Nasty noises in the dark Eyes gleam at me from the wall Lonely souls drift through the tunnel
by Menna & Ella

The Enchanted Tunnel

There are faces in the walls staring at me!
Here is treasure wanting to be found?
Eyes stare at me from the ceiling!

Echo, echo, echo, my voice is scaring me
Noisy splashes drip-drop from the ceiling
Crawling bugs creep out of the ground
Howling wolves come from the other side of the tunnel
A water fountain splashes down
Narrow swamps
The tunnel is made out of skull bricks
Endless tunnel
Dark and damp trees

The tree branches are like hands
Up on the ceiling icicles reach down
Never go along here alone
Nowhere to be seen
Exhausting walk
Lurking eyes
by Josh & James

The Railway Path

The crunched-up leaves are bats hibernating
High-pitched birds echo in the tunnel

Eryops living and trapped in the abandoned well

Rainbows creating stairs to Heaven

A grabby, crawly 1000 legged spider coming to gobble you up

I smell oozy creatures lurking in the puddles

Lonely shadows watch you

Wonderful droplets fall, wobbling to the ground

A drop of blood will feed helpless bugs underneath

You should reconsider going into the tunnel - you can hear the ogre creeping

Peeking round the corner are mini-people camouflaged into the scenery

A whole new world underneath the rocky ground

Trees are like hands, grabbing you

Harmony birds tweet, telling me the future

by Liam

A Winter Tunnel

A grabby, crawly 1000 legged spider coming to gobble you up

Wonderful droplets fall, wobbling to the ground

It's covered in black silhouette shadows

Nasty blood falling while talking to their spirits

The crunched-up leaves are bats hibernating

Rainbows creating stairs to Heaven

Trains turn to fiery dragons breathing smoke

U should beware, monsters could get you there!

Nudge and kick, looking, hearing, smelling and touching

Never be afraid

Even though, as quick as lightning, it could fall

Learn, little children, never come to the old railway!

I call it the haunted trail...

by Josh D

The Winter Railway

Tweet - the birds tweet like they are trying to tell me the future

High - the flowing water blends in nicely with their high-pitched tweets

Echo - the dripping water echoes in the tunnel

Waterfall - the waterfall sparkles in the sunlight as the tinkling sound makes me feel warm inside

Icicles - the crystal icicles remind me of a bat cave

Nose - the waterfall is like a running nose

Tunnel - the tunnel is like a bat cave, so dark and creepy. I sometimes think a troll lives in there.

Excited - the thought of the trip made me feel excited

Red - the tree points out at me like it is talking to me with a wet, red tongue

Run - the vines run up the tree like veins

Amazing - it's amazing to be able to see all the nature around us

Interesting - it was so interesting and intriguing

Look - look at the muddy pool. It smells of mustard and stinky cheese

Walk - the walk was exciting in the tunnel but it seemed to go on and on forever... like space

Awesome - it was awesome hearing the melody of the drips

You - you should be aware of the water
