Name:	Relationship:	Age if over 18 years:

SECTION 3 – Details of person with the relevant association with a visiting force.

A dwelling is exempt from council tax if any person who would otherwise have been liable has a 'relevant association' with a visiting force from a country to which the Visiting Forces Act 1952 applies.

A person has a relevant association with a visiting force if he or she is:

A member of that force, or a member of a civilian component of the force, or	YES	<input type="checkbox"/>	NO	<input type="checkbox"/>
A dependant of a member provided that the dependant is not a British citizen or is not ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom.	YES	<input type="checkbox"/>	NO	<input type="checkbox"/>

If you have ticked YES to either of the boxes above please provide documentary evidence to support this.

This can be in the form of:

- A certificate issued under s.11 of the Visiting Forces Act 1952.

A dwelling owned or rented by a person with a relevant association is exempt even though other people may live in the dwelling that do not have such an association. The exemption does not apply if the person associated with the visiting force would not be a liable person.
