

Francis Charles (Charlie) Flux

Born: 1895 White Horse Inn, Hambrook. Died 1981

Lived: Walton Farm, Hambrook

School: Whiteshill School, Hambrook

Parents: Alfred William Flux

Emily Flux (sister to Albert Hill )

Brothers: Albert Thomas. 1889 - 1915

Alfred Ernest. 1893 – 1918

Sisters: Kate.(Kit) 1891 – 1980

Mabel Emily. 1897 – 1980

Occupation: 1914-1918 Soldier. Royal Field Artillery

Francis Charles (but known as Charlie until his death at the ripe old age of 86 years) joined up on the same day as his cousin Fred Hill, he served with the 47 Brigade, and then various Trench Mortar Batteries of the 19th Division. Other than suffering from dysentery in 1915 he appears to have been unwounded and was demobbed in February 1919.

Charlie returned to Walton Farm where he raised family.

Here is Charlie Flux sitting on his mother, Emily Flux's knee with his big brother Tom Flux standing next to him and his other brother Alfred Flux sitting on the other side in front of their sister Kit Flux. 1896

Links

<http://www.frenchaymuseumarchives.co.uk/>

http://www.frenchaymuseumarchives.co.uk/arch\_parish\_mags.htm

Street view

<http://www.southglos.gov.uk/documents/War%20memorial%20sites.pdf>

Here is Charlie Flux with his school mates around 1900 at Whiteshill School. Charley is in the front row fourth boy along, Fred Hill is the sixth boy along in the same row. Charlie's big sister Kit Flux is in the third row, second girl along, with their big brother Tom Flux in the back row second boy along next to his cousin Arthur Hill.

This is Walton Farm with Charlie and his sister Kit in the 1960's.