The information may be shared within the Council, schools, other Admission Authorities and Local Authorities for the purpose of school admissions and transport.

NOTES:

Parent/Parental Responsibility

Both a child's parents will have parental responsibility for the child if they are married and are the child's natural parents. If the parents of a child are not married to each other, the mother automatically has parental responsibility. The father will have parental responsibility, if he has been named on the birth certificate. This applies to all fathers named on the birth certificate after 1 December 2003. If the father does not have automatic parental responsibility he can subsequently acquire it by the following means:

- a parental responsibility agreement;
- an order of the court granting him parental responsibility or a residence order.

Other persons can acquire parental responsibility for a child in the following ways:

- being granted a residence order or Special Guardian Order;
- being appointed a guardian;
- adopting a child.

A local authority can acquire parental responsibility for a child under a care order or an emergency protection order.

Children in Public Care / Previously Looked After Children

A 'looked after child' is a child who is (a) in the care of the local authority, or (b) being provided with accommodation by a local authority under Section 22(1) of the Children Act 1989 at the time of making the application.

A 'previously looked after child' is a child who was looked after, but ceased to be so because they were adopted; or became subject to a residence order under the terms of the Children Act 1989 (Section 8); or special guardianship order (Section 14A) of the Children Act 1989. This applies where the child was adopted (or became subject to residence or special guardianship order) immediately following having been looked after.

Children in public care (subject to care orders or accommodated by a local authority) and previously looked after will be given priority for any places available at a school.

Offers of School Places

If you apply for a place in a year group at a school where there are vacancies, you will normally be offered a place. Where a child qualifies for a place at more than one school, the final offer will be the highest ranked preference with a place available. In South Gloucestershire we would expect any place offered to be taken up without delay and usually within four school weeks (some admission authorities may have different arrangements). The Admissions and Transport Team can advise you on making an application where a place cannot be taken up within 4-5 weeks of the date of application. Parents and carers are expected to respond within two weeks of the offer of a place otherwise the offer of a place may be withdrawn.

Schools that are Full/Over-subscribed

It may not be possible to offer your child a place if there are more applications than available places. Any decision on which child should be offered a place will be based on the relevant over-subscription criteria.

- If it is possible for your child to be offered a place at your preferred school you will be sent a letter informing you of the offer.
- Where an applicant has been refused a place at the preferred school, they will be given the option to place their child(ren)'s name on a waiting list for a place at the preferred South Gloucestershire school (other admission authorities may not maintain waiting lists) or to appeal for a place to an independent appeal panel.

Waiting Lists for South Gloucestershire Community and Controlled Schools

The waiting list (for Community and Controlled schools) will be maintained for the academic year and then discarded. When a place becomes available, places will be offered in accordance with the over-subscription criteria and not the length of time that an applicant's name has been on the waiting list.

Where a place becomes available and the local authority, after using all advised contact details, is unable to contact a successful applicant for a place within two school weeks, the available place will be offered to the next child to qualify for a place. Where an applicant decides to place their child(ren)'s name on a waiting list, it is up to the applicant to keep South Gloucestershire Council or the appropriate admission authority informed of updated contact and address details.
