

Inspiring women

The Legacy of the First World War in South Gloucestershire

Search these links to find the perfect learning resource for your group.

5 ways to celebrate International Women's Day at school (Primary and Secondary)

"Here's to strong women, may we know them, may we be them, may we raise them."

<http://education.abc.net.au/newsandarticles/blog/-/b/2808442/5-ways-to-celebrate-international-women-s-day-at-school->

International Women's Day teacher resources (Primary and Secondary).

Around the world, students should be encouraged to actively engage in conversations and experiences that equip them to question stereotypes and bias, and celebrate women's achievements. International Women's Day and Teach Starter are supporting teachers by providing premium classroom resources that educate and inspire students.

<https://www.internationalwomensday.com/Activity/12216/Downloadable-teacher-resources-for-IWD-activity>

Celebrating International Women's Day in Education (Primary and Secondary)

Helping children of all ages and all genders find inspiration and courage from diverse women role models is key to education. And teaching children and young adolescents to actively question and openly challenge stereotypes and bias is important because it helps forge a more inclusive world. It is for this reason, that International Women's Day, in collaboration with Penguin Schools is providing practical and insightful classroom resources for teachers around the world. The education of children about gender equality issues is an important means by which we can all #PressforProgress

<https://www.internationalwomensday.com/PenguinRandomHouse>

Inspiring women

The Legacy of the First World War in South Gloucestershire

TES Positive Female Role Models (Secondary)

A presentation of 18 inspirational female role models (names+pictures+short presentation) to remind the pupils of what women can achieve and to break a few stereotypes. The list is of course incomplete but the women chosen here are artists, politicians, athletes, writers, journalists, businesswomen etc.

<https://www.tes.com/teaching-resource/positive-female-role-models-6109644>

Britannica Digital Learning (Primary and Secondary)

Thursday 8th March is International Women's Day, a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women throughout history. To celebrate, our Curriculum Specialists have put together a lesson plan for you to use in the classroom.

<https://britannica.co.uk/classroom-activity-international-womens-day/>

<https://spotlight.britannica.co.uk/IWD/>

The Guardian: Six creative ways to inspire girls in science lessons (Primary and Secondary)

<https://www.theguardian.com/teacher-network/2015/oct/05/six-creative-ways-inspire-girls-science-lessons>

TES Ideas for International Women's Day (Primary and Secondary)

Celebrate the achievements of women around the world on International Women's Day

<https://www.tes.com/teaching-resources/blog/ideas-international-womens-day>

Inspiring women

The Legacy of the First World War in South Gloucestershire

Five Resources for International Women's Day (Secondary)

March 8 is International Women's Day, a global celebration of the economic, political, academic, and social achievements of women past, present and future. Teachers will want to use this day, not to mention the entire month, to celebrate women.

<https://www.educationworld.com/teachers/five-resources-international-womens-day>

BBC International Women's Day (Primary and Secondary)

A collection of BBC Teach YouTube resources to celebrate International Women's Day.

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/articles/2DfK5X4Xt1sptY3lphC6YZD/international-womens-day?preview=true>

International Women's Day – School Workshops (Primary and Secondary)

Events and courageous testimonies never cease to remind us that, despite progress, it's still vitally important to provide girls and young women (and boys and young men too, of course!) with powerful and positive role models. So we've developed some exciting new programmes to help you celebrate International Women's Day (March 8th)

<https://www.as-creatives.com/international-womens-day-workshops>