

The Story of Peache Road

A long time ago on Peache Road there were five mountains in which a mum and a baby Chinchilla lived. One day a bunny named Snowy came to visit. Snowy was a very mean rabbit. Snowy bullied Chi-Chi the baby chinchilla whenever mum chinchilla was not looking. Soon Snowy kicked and punched Chi-Chi so much that Chi-Chi's leg got broken. Luckily the mum chinchilla saw. The mum chinchilla kicked Snowy out of their home. After Snowy has been kicked out the mum chinchilla collected some wild berries and made a medicine that would make Chi-Chi better. When the medicine was ready Chi-Chi lead on his back and drank the medicine. After the medicine was all gone Chi-Chi felt much better.

If you visit Peache Road today you will not see any mountains but you will see the bush that the medicine berries came from.

Zombie

Once there was a zombie
Who was rather tough
Although he had no weapons
He was so rough

This zombie
Sticks out his hands, eats your flesh
And sometimes plays with his elastic bands

He eats out of the garbage can
He is as scruffy as a bag
He loves the feeling of a fan
He likes to listen to famous bands

Also
He lurks around Barley Close
Searching, finding, looking, for his daily toast
